

Emma O'Sullivan

emma.osullivan@example.com • +353 85 123 4567 • Dublin, Ireland

PROFILE

Registered General Nurse with five years of acute experience, the last three in a high-dependency unit. Known among colleagues for calm escalations, meticulous documentation, and being the person students ask for by name.

EXPERIENCE

Staff Nurse — High Dependency Unit

St. Brigid's University Hospital, Dublin

2023 — Present

- Care for post-surgical and step-down ICU patients in a 10-bed HDU (1:2 ratio)
- Trained and precepted 8 nursing students and 3 new staff nurses in the past two years
- Led a pressure-ulcer prevention audit that contributed to a 30% reduction in unit-acquired injuries

Staff Nurse — Medical Ward

St. Brigid's University Hospital, Dublin

2021 — 2023

- Managed caseloads of up to 12 acute medical patients per shift
- Completed the National Early Warning Score (NEWS2) escalation training and ALS certification

EDUCATION & REGISTRATION

B.Sc. Nursing (General)

Trinity College Dublin

2017 — 2021

NMBI Registered General Nurse • ALS/BLS certified

Nursing and Midwifery Board of Ireland

Active

ICU Foundation Course (in progress, completion expected December 2026)

SKILLS

Clinical: HDU/step-down care, ventilator familiarity, NEWS2 escalation, IV therapy, wound care

Professional: Preceptorship, clinical audit, family communication, documentation